

Pages in My Life (Paperback)

By MR Clifford Calvin Young

Margaret Reynolds, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. MR Freddy Bencomo (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Pages In My Life depicts too few of the many instances in the life of the author yet though the poems in this anthology reveals a cross section with its main focus on Life, Love, Pain and Reflection. As simple as the section title may seem and to most would be thought of as predictive, beware, what follows is nothing near to what we would expect. Love and Pain, as it pertains to the former, one would expect to hear only sweet rhymes of passion that we all know are dreams of what love should be. However, the author in his book does a great job of capturing a great portion of what it entails from those sweet rhymes of passion to what many of us choose to ignore, which is the down side of love, the pain that accompanies it. As Khalil Gibran expresses it, the same thing that gives you joy, causes you pain. In other words it is inevitable that you pay your respects in this regard, you can never separate one from the...
