In the absence of the President, the Secretary moved that General Joseph Wheeler, U. S. A., as the oldest living Vice-President present, be requested to preside, and the motion being enthusiastically carried, General Wheeler took the chair, amid applause. Having called the meeting to order, the chairman spoke as follows: I feel very much honored in being called upon to preside over this meeting, and I hope that every one present will feel, as I do, the mandate that is upon us to preserve the records of ancestry. Every religion on earth commands in some way the honor or worship of ancestry. We sometimes build monuments to our ancestors, but this is not always possible. Certainly the least that we can do is to preserve their records. What a disappointment it would be for us to think that in a...
