In the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi, poet and God s Troubadour, this timeless classic portrays the lives of the saints through creative, catchy poetry and quaint etchings. This book is an engaging learning tool, whether your child is learning the alphabet, the saints, or both! Each page features: -A vintage etching of a scene from the life of a saint and the letter of the alphabet -A brief biographical summary of the saint s mission, life, and feast day -A delightful poem about the saint, with fluid rhymes for easy memorization Its hardcover format ensures that it will withstand the long and repeated usage it is sure to receive.
