God s Kingdom and Our Cultures in Genesis: The Beginnings of God s Gospel Dream (Paperback)

By Dr Larry L Niemeyer

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The global issues of our day - whether economic, social, political, religious, health, environmental or others - occur in the context of two competing visions. One vision was established before the beginning of time by God, the Creator of all things. Revelation is his perspective on global issues as recorded in the Bible. Faith is the response he seeks from humankind. The Kingdom is his overall plan that begins from these central features and extends to all of life. The other vision was established at the beginning of time and has diversified wildly in multiple ways ever since. It always has people at the center, depends on their unique world views or interpretations of the world, becomes evident in their religious myths, beliefs, values, symbols, themes and rituals, and results in competing human plans called cultures. Global issues cannot avoid these conflicts. The Bible s book of Genesis, Chapters 1-3, describes the origin of these conflicts. Genesis Chapters 1-2 are about God s Kingdom plan in which his LIFE plays the central part. Genesis Chapter 3 is about the first...
