

Holiday Face-Off (Paperback)

By Kristen Echo

Kristen Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . All is fair in love and hockey, right? WRONG. Being single is the only way to protect her heart, especially from sexy, bad boy hockey players who are a dime a dozen in the Canadian prairies. With a rash of disappearances in the area, heading home for Christmas is the only way to stay safe. University freshman, Carly Saint, has a chip on her shoulder and a past that's off limits, but even the toughest woman can't say no to Theo Montagne, the NHL's rising star. She thought she knew everything about the famous hockey player from what she'd seen on TV. Except a chance encounter with the smoking hot centreman isn't at all what she expected. When the blizzard of the century forces them to seek shelter to survive, she discovers how different he is from any man she's ever met. Theo has certain naughty ideas of how they can spend their time in isolation, and Carly's defensive game crumbles against the league's top scorer. But when the snow tapers, their newly formed bond...
