Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. .Too many times I was denied this part in the play or that role in the production. I couldn t be a part of this clique or that group. I spent many lonely hours in the midst of a crowd of people, in school, at business gatherings, at church functions. I never could just blend or fit in. Either I was the headliner, or I was forced to take a seat off to the side. I wasn t criticized as much as I was excluded, so I decided to make a few adjustments. I decided to function as support personnel, much like I opted to do in Calvin s businesses. I had no problem with helping in the background; even in that, I seemed to always get noticed or recognized. Sometimes that recognition caused others to perceive me as a threat or pull away from me. Some even found fault and criticized me for nothing. It couldn t just be for nothing; I understood that maybe I gave off some vibe or projected some unacceptable disposition, unconsciously. I always prayed that my heart was pure before God. I figured if my heart gave off a sweet aroma to Him, maybe other people would learn to like me more. I didn t understand it, and I gave up trying. It no longer hurt me as much though; I kind of prepared myself for it, just in case. Young, gifted, talented.and with a slight chip on her shoulder, Janeah Moore feels like a fugitive in her own little world of mediocrity and monotony. In light of the complacency of those around her, she fights tooth and nail to settle for what..
