It's there, by a frozen lake, that she meets him for the first time. A handsome stranger, prone to appearing in unusual places, Derek shows up at the local ski club and even manages to get hired at Holly's company without going through the usual channels. Before long, the pair end up planning a cross-country ski trip together, and Holly can't help but imagine the romantic possibilities ahead. With the help of her best friend Megan who has a penchant for New Age ceremonies and the I Ching, Holly begins to create her new life, indeed making her fantasies come true. But when the truth behind Derek's role in the company comes out, Holly can sense the dream turning sour. And soon a deranged psychopath turns both of their lives upside down in a dangerous, real-life nightmare.
