His reason for withholding his name is chiefly to avoid coming publicly into collision with individuals whose piety as well as learning he holds in cordial and affectionate esteem; while justice to the great cause which he has undertaken to defend, makes him endeavour to give their sentiments a somewhat decided and unceremonious confutation. He conceives also, that by the impersonal method of address, he may adopt a style more likely to attract and interest the general reader, than by the more correct, but less spirited phraseology of dissertation.
