Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pretty soon you won't even be thinking about your cubicle or that client that is never quite satisfied. Or those work files that are always getting misplaced (the ones with the important contract), because you will be sitting on a beach drinking some little tropical drink with around the name of which you can't quite remember. But that's okay because right now. You don't even remember your own name, you sink your toes deep into the sand and lean back in your chair ever so slightly to take in as much of the magnificent pinkish gold sunset as possible. Barcelona Spain has become your sole reason for existing, at least for the next three days anyway. Barcelona is one of the most famous cities in the world with a rich cultural heritage as well as some of the friendliest people on the planet who would like nothing more to share their stories and knowledge of this great city with you, although communication can sometimes be difficult (unless of course you speak Spanish). As long as you are within city limits, it should not be too much of a problem as many of the cafes bars and restaurants are accustomed to dealing with US and British tourists. Barcelona has plenty of things for the venture is an academic tourists alike. There are world-class museums, as well as a flourishing nightlife where you can learn the tango and even watch people fight with the iconic matador in a sequined costume, with his flourishing red cape. If however a bull fight or dancing the tango is not up your street and give them to...
