Riverwalker Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .J. E. Ketchel s foray into the world of the unconscious continues in Place of No Pity, Volume 4 of the Recapitulation Diaries. Where she went is not on any map, there are no directions, for it is a journey into the unknown. In her search for knowledge the fearless Ms. Ketchel was undaunted by what she encountered, always aware of the importance of keeping one foot in reality no matter where the journey took her. An intrepid traveler, she carried on the total dismantling of a self and a life that no longer served her while she simultaneously constructed a new self and a new life based on her own discoveries of what life could and should be. We cannot help but cheer her on. How many survivors of sexual abuse could find anything positive in their experience? As Ms. Ketchel contemplates in Place of No Pity: -Without my consent, sexual abuse was imposed on me and determined the kind of life I would lead. I have been a sexually abused person my entire life; I see that now. I understand that it has defined and controlled me on so many levels, but that it has also gotten me where I am now. Sexual abuse has provided the strong backbone of my existence too, so I must respect it rather than hate it. I must extricate from it the inherent good strengths and advantages that such a life afforded me and integrate them into who I am becoming, for though I suffered greatly I invariably gained a great deal as well.- J. E. Ketchel takes us with her into the depths of her soul, going where few have dared to tread....
