Delok Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 390 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. Never hallucinate too close to reality. So we are advised right from the beginning by Snafu Trismegistus, the Bodhisattva of Universal Cool--and we spend the rest of the book wondering if the warning didn't come too late. If you like your idealism from the unbridled and unbroken spirit of the emerging world culture, then book your reservations now for the Hotel Bardo, where the motto of pilgrims, poets, and prophets is Dream A Better Dream. Author W D Horden follows up on his previous books, The Tao of Cool and The Toltec I Ching, with this earthy, offbeat, irreverent, and utterly timely look into the timeless questions about life, death, love, lust, and the nature of reality. This is not just a roller coaster ride among a cast of wild and improbable characters--it is also a book of...
